

When we hear the word "key" what do we think?

- pronunciation key door → unlock
- Key to your heart → how
- Kingdom Hearts → what opens

- Piano keys

- Florida Keys

- Password-unlocks

- key word outline

- clue/answer

car key → park car

Kingdom Hearts → weapons are giant keys

- Key factor → main thing

- Key on map → legends

hotel key lock & key

Music, Jefferson, and the Declaration of Independence

1. J. Adams, B. Franklin, T. Jefferson
T. Paine
2. 1st draft, agreed, → artistic, precise
3. A-rough, F-sick, P-controversial,
J-task
4. landlady, recorded, struggle
5. Pacing, accomplish, little

1. Who/Which - puts/connects
2 ideas

My brother Jon is a police officer.

He works for the city of Corning.

① My brother Jon is a p.o.
(who works for the city of C.)

② My brother Jon, who is a police officer, works for the city of Corning.

→ appositive

Heading

① John Adams, Benjamin Franklin, Thomas Paine, and Thomas Jefferson were burdened with the task of writing the Declaration of Independence. ^{These} four men agreed that the document must be artistic as well as precise.

~~But fortunately~~ Adams was too rough, Franklin too sick, Paine too controversial, and so the task fell to Jefferson. ① Jefferson's landlady

X recorded his struggles in her journal

X ② As Jefferson paced, he accomplished little. ^{which caused him to send} Jefferson sent home for one of his violins. ② Once

X arrived he would play for half an hour and write. When he ^{began writing} was working ①

X quiet descended. ① A few days

X later ^{the document} it was complete and ready to present. ① Music may have unlocked

X his linguistic genius, ^{which} and made him more receptive to the words. ①

X people know that the violin took part in the founding of our country. ^{of the Declar. 1 Few Singing}

